Foreword

AS WE, the Class of 1950, in bidding final adieu to our alma mater, look back with fondest memories upon those pleasant, but altogether too fleeting years spent within its ivy-covered walls, we hope that we have not failed in setting this important milestone on the hundredth anniversary of our school.

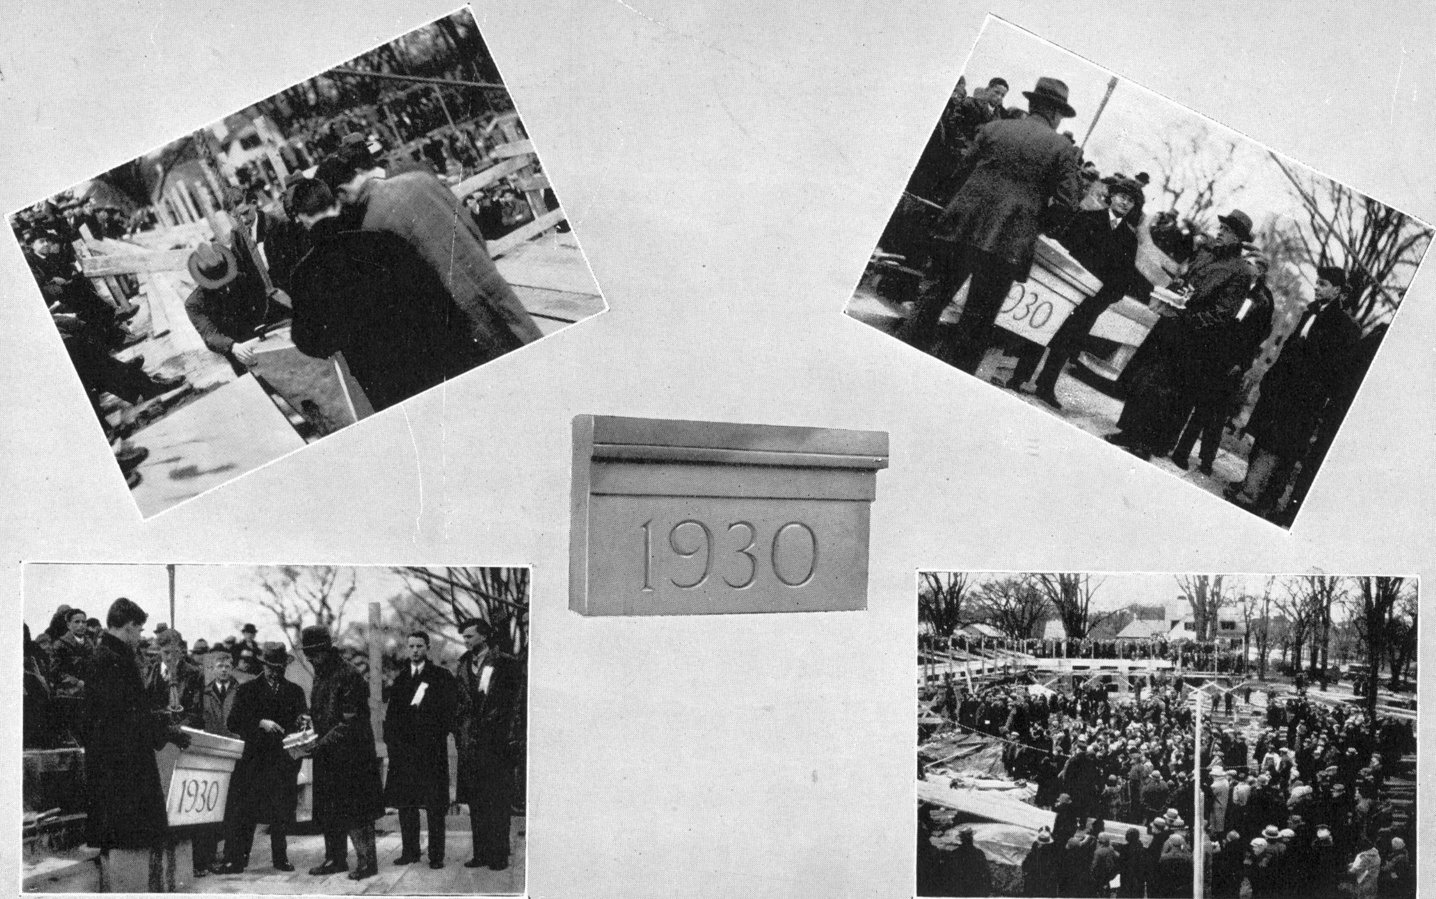

As the theme for this Yearbook, we have chosen the hundred years which have elapsed since the first class in 1850 passed through the portals of a small, crudely built school to embark upon the great educational adventure. These hundred years have been years of growth and progress, of hope, hard work, and accomplishment. It is our hope that in the century now beginning, Pittsfield High School may maintain its high standards and go on to new and richer achievement.

Arthur Palme

Dedication

AS we of the Class of 1950 review the hundred years of our school's existence, we feel a deep sense of gratitude to all the earlier sons and daughters of Pittsfield High School, for it was they who established and strengthened our school, making it into a proud institution of learning. From the portals of Pittsfield High have gone forth thousands of young people to take their places in the world of business, art, science, and other fields of endeavor. To all we pay our tribute of respect and affection.

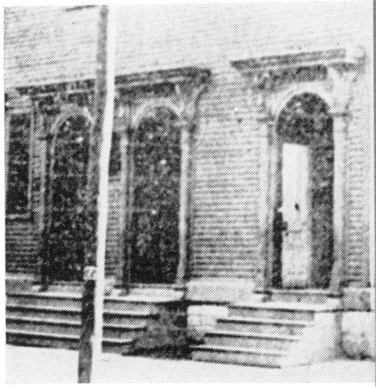

LAYING THE CORNERSTONE OF THE PRESENT BUILDING

One Hundred Years

1850-1950

Centennial Ode

By Doris Byrdy

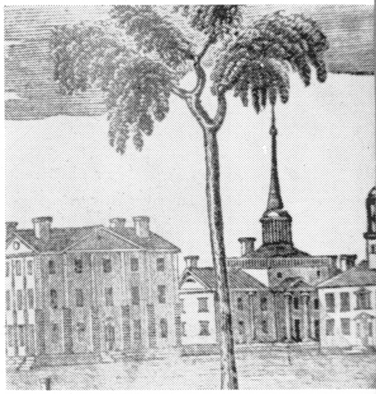

1827

Hark, all who will, and we shall relate
The history of our Alma Mater to date.
From the solons at Boston came the farsighted ruling
That the towns must respond to the need for high schooling.
What an adverse reception this ukase received!
For most, from the least to the mayor believed
'Twas nonsensical.

1850
1851–53 Principal Jonathan Tenney
1853–57 Principal A. B. Whipple
1857–64 Principal S. J. Sawyer

After years of evading the law's demands,
Our town built a school where the post office now stands.
It had three rooms to boast of, cost three thousand dollars,
Had an M.A. in charge of some five dozen scholars.
The townsfolk dropped in whenever they wanted.
The exams, which were oral and public, then haunted
The students.

1864–66 Principal W. H. Swift
1867

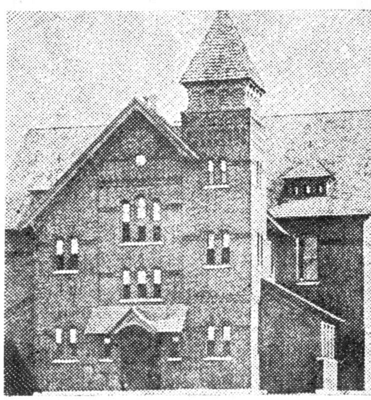

The subjects they studied were straight from the classics;
E.g., rhetoric, Greek, and Euclidean mathematics.
Philosophy, mental and moral, was asked;
And with bookkeeping also the students were tasked.
The school grew in numbers, but not in capacity;
So to deal with the great intellectual voracity
'Twas rebuilt.

1866–69 Principal J. E. Bradley
1870
1869–78 Principal Albert Tolman
1876

Grade school and high school were therein combined.
Soon enrollment surpassed that for which 'twas designed.
When the powers deemed it well to reward lucubration
Two lone girls were first honored in formal graduation.
Now the Medical School on South Street was bought,
But this acquisition quite soon came to naught;
A fire razed the structure considered so fine,
But a new one was built in a very short time
On the same site.

1878–82 Principal E. G. Baldwin
1882–88 Principal E. G. Rice

Innovations were added; new ideas were expressed,
Such as, "English, not Latin's what ought to be stressed."
A heretical teacher was heard to exclaim
On the subject of homework, "I think it's a shame!"
A foresighted school board began to insist
That science and French be put on the list
To keep up with the times.

1888–91 Principal J. B. Welch

With the passing of years the attendance increased;
Accommodations, however—not in the least.
One perplexed princeps made this suggestion:
"Th' elementary students who increase congestion
Might well be removed, to our satisfaction;
Their presence, forsooth, is a cause of detraction
From high scholars' dignity."

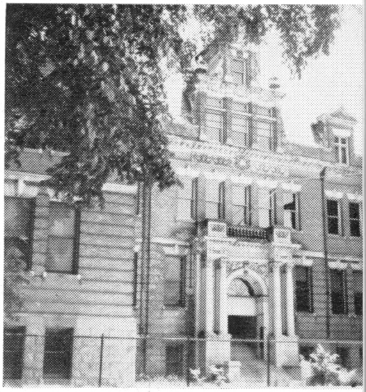

THE CLASS OF 1894

1895

Needs and pleas went unheeded; facilities were dwindling,
But the Fates got some action—used the school for their kindling!

1891–1905
Principl
C. A. Byram

Although the town fathers commissioned a new one,
A good two years passed before it was done.
A half-finished block at a West Street location,
Sadly equipped to advance education,
Served in the meantime.

1897

Our very first high school, so the archives express
For the space of a year next relieved the distress.
Down by the Common at a First Street address
The new building was ready—a peerless success—

1898

A structure imposing, with classrooms to spare,
It boasted labs, a cafeteria—in those days quite rare—
And an auditorium!

Business was booming, so they made a decision
To arrange and conduct a commercial division.
When the attendance had doubled in but a decade's space,
The students of business were prevailed on to make place

1905–11
Principal
W. D. Goodwin
1911

By transferring their section to Read School nearby;
Their departure, however, served not to supply
The much-needed relief.

1911–17
Principal
Harry E. Pratt

All methods and means were tried out in this crux
In an effort to cope with and shelter the influx
They set up more seats, held a double session,
And accomplished slight ends by corporeal compression,

1917–21
Principal
Lorne B. Hulsman

They converted the attic without insulating
(It was freezing in winter; in spring, suffocating)
Into classrooms.

1921
Principal
Roy M. Strout

A sin of omission to leave this unsaid:
In this fortunate year Mr. Strout became head.
The since titled "High School of Commerce" returned
And the crowding seemed hopeless. Then aid was discerned.

1928

The mayor appointed a special committee
To seek and suggest some fit spot in the city
For a new school.

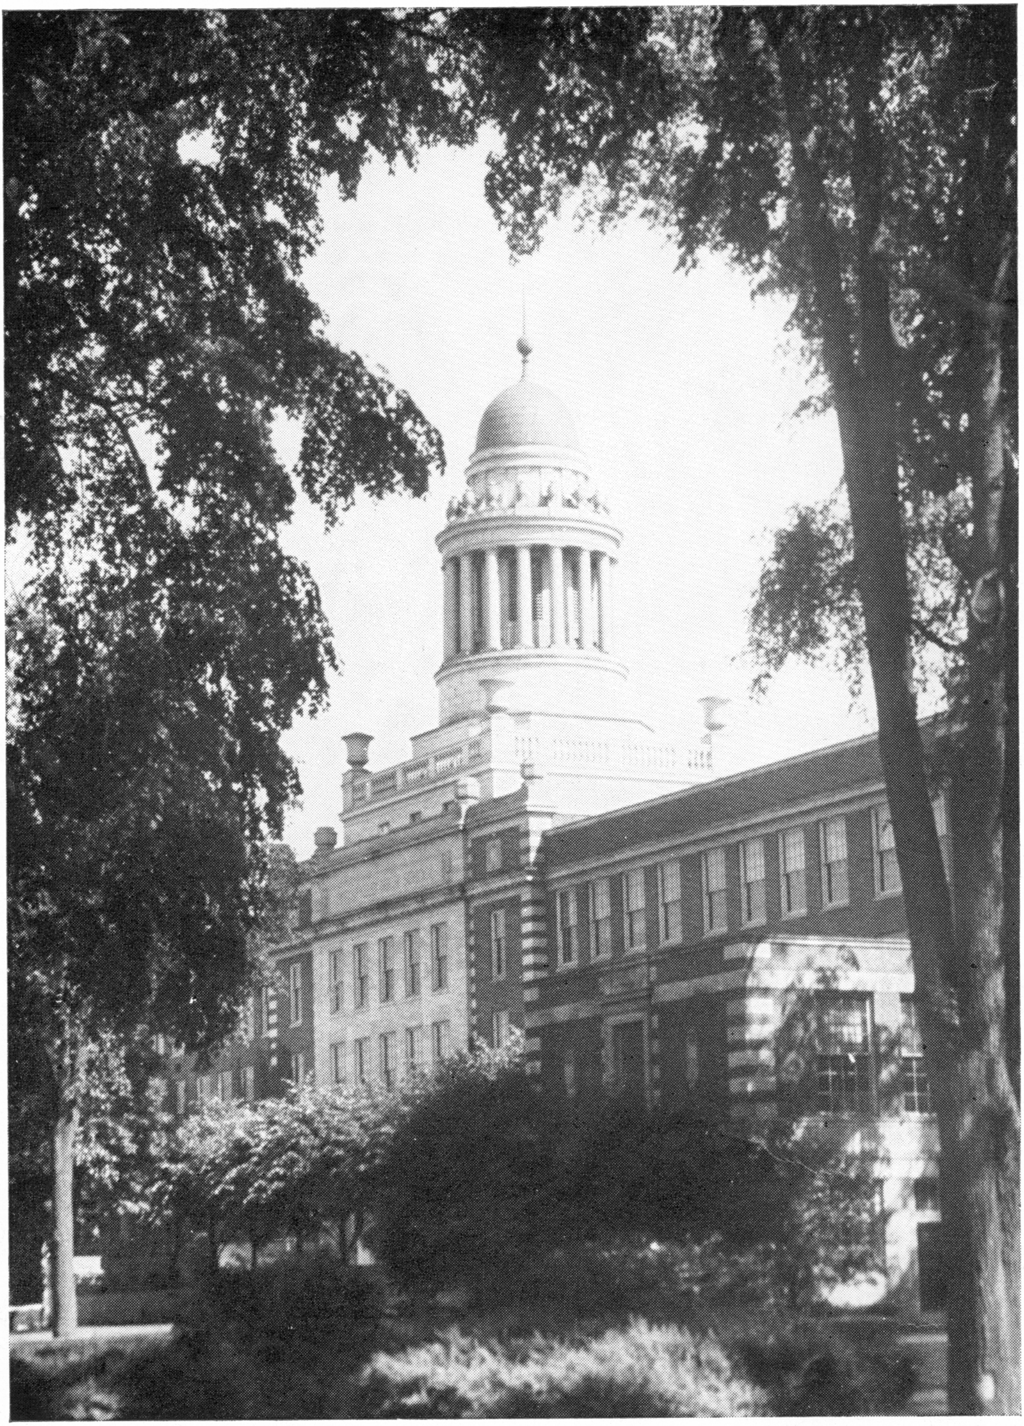

1931

Sentimental objection couldn't bar their selection
So, soon was complete the long-needed erection.
The years intervening have swiftly passed by
To find cause for expanding even this Pittsfield High

1950

Its history up to the present's been told.
Now, we'll opine what the future will hold
That its first hundred years were the hardest!

1850-1950

By Marcia Angelo

Over the hill and down the road
The boys of yesterday
Waved to the lassies bound for school
In the one horse open shay.
A hot rod over concrete roads
Now speeds us to our school,
But it's quite as open as Grandad's shay—
(And the weather's quite as cruel.)
Dungarees and jersey have replaced
The stiff starched shirt;
The checkered blouse and jumper
Supplant the hooped skirt.
A social outcast then the girl
With hair above her waist;
Now hair below the earlobes
Is considered out of taste.
"Flow Gently" sung by Grandpa
Made Grandma almost swoon;
Boy, I bet it'd knock her out
To hear our Bingo croon!
Granny liked songs with funny words
Like "Dear, I love thee true,"
But us—we go for sensible stuff
Like "Bibbidi, Bobbidi, Boo!"
In 1850 dull grey slates
Were quite an innovation,
But pale green boards and yellow chalk
Are now the new creation.
When Grandpa courted Grandma
He had to write a letter;
The boys of 1950 use
The telephone—it's better.
Camphor bags were hung about
The neck in days of old,
But we have antihistamine—
The wonder drug for cold.
Melodeons so gently played
Gave forth with music sweet;
Now saxophones with licorice sticks
And trumpets sure are reet.
The world has marvelously changed
Since dear old Grandpa's day,
And jet-propelled and rocket ships
Replace the one horse shay.
We don't have much in common
With the Class of 1850;
The one thing we'd agree on is
That P. H. S. is nifty!

Boy's Death Brings Suit For $25,000

A $25,000 suit in the death of 18-year-old Alexis Kerichenko has been filed by the boy's father against Vincent Stracuzzi of this city. The defendant's truck crashed into the Kerichenko car in the double-fatality accident of last April 25 on West Street at Valentine Road.

The suit was filed yesterday, entry day, in Superior Court by John Kerichenko, through his attorney, Maurice B. Rosenfield. The second death in the collision was that of Richard Borkowski of this city.

Meet Me In St. Louis

THE Senior Class, on February 10, 1950, presented a play as its annual production. This play, "Meet Me In St. Louis" replaced the Gilbert and Sullivan operettas which have been given for the past eleven years.

From the moment the curtain rose to the time the final song was sung, the audience was held enthralled. Everyone was entirely taken in by the charming Smith family. Betsy Hynes as the beauteous Rose started many a male heart fluttering as she performed with the grace, charm, and poise of any Hollywood star. Each of the players was so suited to his part that the dialogue might have been written for him individually. Almost any day one can see Mr. Smith's two mischievous daughters, Agnes and Tootie, scurrying through the halls in the persons of Marcia Angelo and Joyce Lacas. St. Louis and the Smith girls were indeed fortunate in having such attractive males as Charles Genovese, Donald Shaw, and Richard Haskell at their beck and call. To sum it up briefly, the play was a four-star success.

Orchids go to the coach, Miss Elizabeth Enright, for her excellent direction of the cast; to Mr. James Conroy, class adviser; and to the efficient co-chairmen, Margery Lyman and Richard Holleran.

The Junior Prom - Our Debut In Society

ON April 29, 1949, the Class of 1950 presented its Junior Promenade. Against a simulated background of a forest, complete with large cutouts of many of the forest denizens, about three hundred and seventy juniors and their guests danced to the music of Larry Murphy and his orchestra.

Thanks to the chairmen, Betsy Hynes and Larson Powell, and their efficient assisting committees, the Prom was a big success. Everyone there felt the gay spirit that was in the heart of each Junior.

Junior Prom Committee Chairmen: Chairmen, Betsy Hynes and Larson Powell; Decoration, Jason Reder; Music, Paul Wagenknecht; Program, Patricia Hughes; Publicity, Richard Holleran; Tickets, Helen Keefe and Donald Agar; Invitations, Delores Bernardo; Reception, Elizabeth Aitchison; Checking, Harold Soutier; Refreshments, Joanne Skowron; House, Myron Shindler.

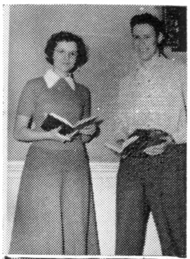

Our Junior Year Elections

IT seemed to be just another item on the daily bulletin, "Nomination papers for Junior class offices will be given out today in Room 206." These few words, however, led to one of the most bitterly contested elections ever held in P. H. S.

After the candidates had succeeded in getting the required number of signatures, the battle was truly on. One of the candidates hit upon an idea that would bring students' thoughts to her, and consequently their votes. She devised a little novelty with a slogan attached and passed it around to the prospective voters. This idea spread like wildfire, and for the next few weeks more slogans had been written and more novelties given out than the professional publicity agents could have dreamed up.

After the elections the votes were tallied with the following results: President, John Hart; Boy Veep, James Mazzer; Girl Veep, Dianne Shuster; Secretary, Ann Evans; Treasurer, Marcia Viale.

Alma Mater Song

Words by Esther Kierstead '38 and Friend Kierstead, Jr., '39
Tune: "All Through The Night"

Guardian elm trees cast their shadows
O'er thy ivied walls;
Sons and daughters ever loyal
Throng thy honored halls,
Pittsfield High School, Pittsfield High School,
Alma Mater dear,
Help us to preserve thy honor
Through each coming year.

Great has been thy former record,
Greater will it be,
As the future generations
Sing their praise to thee.
Proud are we who through thy portals
Into life do pass;
Help us ever to be worthy,
Each and every class.

Class History

Sophomore Year 1947-1948

Sept. 3, '47—Our first day at P. H. S. Bewildered, weren't we?

Sept. 10—We meet to learn school songs and cheers, much to the chagrin of the cheerleaders.

Sept. 18—Our first rally. Meek little souls, eh, upperclassmen?

Sept. 29—Same old burned-out Fire Prevention talk.

Oct. 16—S. A. S. Assembly, "Let's Face It Now" (Nahhh, let George do it.)

Oct. 23—Mr. Richard Pough on "The Outdoors in New England." Wish we were!

Nov. 12—Freed to see the Freedom Train.

Nov. 26—Thanksgiving. Sad news today, turkeys.

Dec. 4—"Manners for Minors." John L. Lewis, take heed!

Dec. 9—A lecture "Conquest of Mt. McKinley." Nothing to get up in the air about.

Dec. 15—Christmas vacation is here,
All of us Sophomores do capers;
No more work—and no more papers.

Jan. 7, '48—Mr. Carlson gives a very interesting talk on Communism, although it doesn't seem to aid our class treasury in leaving the "RED."

Jan. 21—Hey, boys, how 'bout this charm exhibited by the Charm Quartet. Yahooooo!!!!

Jan. 30—Our able skiers from P. H. S. show supremacy in winning the Berkshire Interscholastic Ski Title.

Feb. 12—Our classmates of "The Mikado" flourished devastating costumes as the audience sat spellbound.

Feb. 24—Marguerite Shoemaker entertains with a program entitled "Deep Sea Diver." We are wondering if she goes "DOWN TO THE SEA IN SLIPS."

Mar. 12—The Army Ground Forces Band Concert proves to be a scintillating spectacle of syncopation and superlative genius.

Mar. 31-April 2—A special class is held in the second floor "Mop" room during "Career Conference Week" for certain intelligentsia interested in becoming custodians.

April 1—"Resin on the bow, boys, here we go," said Mr. Gorman—and they went . . . at the annual orchestra concert.

May 17—The muscle-bound men of P. H. S. present a palpitating pageant of pulchritude and pantomime at the annual gym exhibition.

May—It is with deep sorrow and regret that we make note of the passing of Mr. Arthur Goodwin, one of our vice-principals.

June 4—The well trained talent of the Pittsfield High band makes its yearly concert its usual success.

June 15—A final remembrance is left by the Class of '48 in their class day program. They leave with a job well done.

June 18—Our first year at P. H. S. is terminated with the optimistic outlook of having to sit through only 10,650 more periods.

Junior Year 1948-1949

Sept. 8, '48—School opens. Only Juniors, but we're getting there!

Sept. 16—Assembly. "So You Don't Like Poetry." We've changed our minds!

Nov. 1—Student Council finally votes to allow smoking behind the school during the lunch periods. "A light, a light, at last a light!"

Nov. 11—P. H. S.-St. Joe game. We won, natch!

Nov. 25-29—Thanksgiving vacation.

Dec. 16—Junior Class Elections. For the past week the Juniors have been weighted down with a variety of campaign buttons, stickers, and tags. It's all over now!

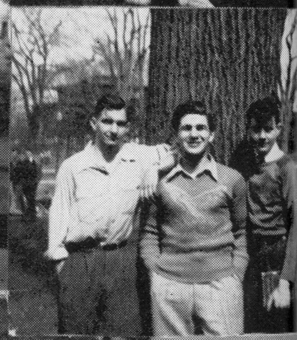

Dec. 17—Bundle Day. No homework if you bring a bundle. Wish they'd have 'em more often!

Dec. 23—No school 'til next year.

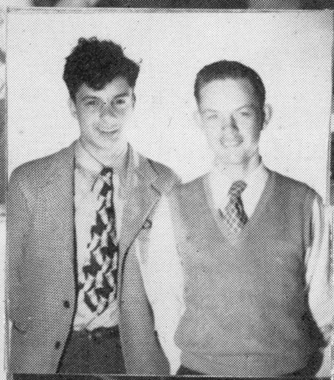

Dec. 25—Help! Quick! Santa's caught in the chimney!
Jan. 3, '49—1949 sure rolled around in a hurry!
Feb. 10-11—P. H. S. is invaded by a band of pirates who give a wonderful performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pirates of Penzance."
Feb. 14—St. Valentine finds us all busily writing essays, entitled "Why Democracy Works."
Feb. 19-27—Vacation—at last!
Mar. 8—Basketball tournament in Springfield—lost by one point!
Mar. 12—Congratulations. The "Pen" wins a first place at Columbia again.
Mar. 24-31—Career Week. "What shall we be if we ever grow up?"
April 4—Debate with Lee High School. "Should the voting age be lowered to eighteen?" Yes, yes, of course.
April 5—Easter Vacation.
April 17—We all go off to church to show
Our Easter suits and new chapeaux.
April 29—Our big night. The Junior Prom.
June 2—Band concert. Any ear plugs in the house?
June 18—Congratulations to Coach Fox and his baseball team for winning the State Baseball Championship.
June 22—Just one more year to go!

Senior Year 1949-1950

Sept. 7, '49—Hey, we're SENIORS! !
Our class rings have arrived—how long will you keep yours, boys?
Oct. 7—Adams booster game rally—Yay! Yay! We get out at one today!
Oct. 11—School Department receives a dual-controlled car for teaching us to drive. All others using public highways do so at their own risk.
Oct. 10—Senior Class elections—Morehead by a landslide!
Oct. 20—Archery assembly. Only Cupid's shots could be more accurate
Nov. 11—P. H. S. 49-St. Joe 0. Aren't the new band uniforms snazzy?
Nov. 24—Thank the Lord for Thanksgiving; we get two days out!
Dec. 21—Au revoir, auf Wiedersehen, Hasta la vista, and farewell, Mr. Innis.
Dec. 22—Merry Christmas to all, and to school a not-too-fond goodbye for 1949.
Jan. 3, '50—School again. Where did that vacation go?
Jan. 12—Class meeting. Seniors, class dues are just that—due!
Jan. 23—A week of mid-years. O death, where is thy sting?
Senior girls win the volleyball championship—It was worth waiting for, champs.
Jan. 20—P. H. S. 39-St. Joe 35.
Feb. 3—Report cards. Nuff said!
Feb. 10—"Meet Me in St. Louis," Broadway, here we come!
Feb. 17—Hallelujah, we're liberated for nine whole days.
Feb. 27—Only seven more weeks until vacation!
Mar. 15—P. H. S. 29-St. Joe 30.
April 9—Easter bunny, bring me a nice big basket—basketball player, that is!
April 16—Another blessed vacation.
May 12—Glee Club Concert. Young ladies (?) should be heard as well as seen.
May 4—"These Flags Still Fly." Mr. Edward L. Jeambey's theme is Freedom; soon it will be ours, too.
May 5—Junior Prom, "I'm gonna dance with a dolly . . . "
May 30—P. H. S. Band members spent a quiet afternoon with their throbbing feet lovingly arranged on pillows.
June 1—Oh, what is so rare as a day in June? One when we're not in school.
June 9—Band concert. "There's something about a hometown band . . . "
June 9—Class Day. Gad, these gowns are hot!
June 18—Graduation at last. And what now, O Future?

Ye Olde Will and Testament

WE, the hundredth senior class to be liberated from Pittsfield High, being of unsound mind and similar body, bequeath the following:

TO:—

Mr. Strout: a large smoking room.

Miss Parker: a class of Quakers.

Mr. Hennessey: a larger detention chamber.

Dr. Van Dusen: a diploma.

Mr. Leahy: a recording of the "Donkey Serenade."

Miss Bulger: longer periods.

Mr. Massimiano: a shovel.

Miss Pfeiffer: a subpoena for her lost dictionary.

Mr. Gage: a book on the mechanical possibilities and physical potentialities of a ping pong ball.

Miss Enright: recognition from Cecil B. DeMille.

Mr. Geary: a triangular slide ruler to work exclusively on circles.

Miss Whitmire: erasers for her typing classes.

Mr. Davison: a new undertaker's coat for lab work.

Miss Hutchinson: an incinerator for the disposal of communistic propaganda.

Mr. Reynolds: boys with "definite" future plans.

Miss Kaliher: a heart to be used on her students.

Mr. Conroy: our Senior Class debts.

Mr. Gorman: a raccoon coat.

Miss McNaughton: a class of Babe Dedricksons.

Mr. Green: a bottle of anti-termite tonic.

Miss Madden: a lovelorn column for cheerleaders and athletes.

Coaches Carmody and Stewart: a class of dumbbell lifters.

Miss Daly: a two-cent gum machine.

Coach Fox: a purple and white toupee.

Miss Haylon: roller skates to help her in distributing The Student's Pen.

Janitors: wider brooms or narrower halls.

Future Seniors: a trip to the dome.

Future Juniors: a fraction of our intelligence.

Future Sophomores: Adler's elevated shoes.

Future Freshmen: maps of P. H. S.

All the teachers who have stood by P. H. S. during its first one hundred years we leave.

Thus we bring to a close this will and depart from these precincts, hoping our good thoughts, if any, will live forever.

Football Flashes

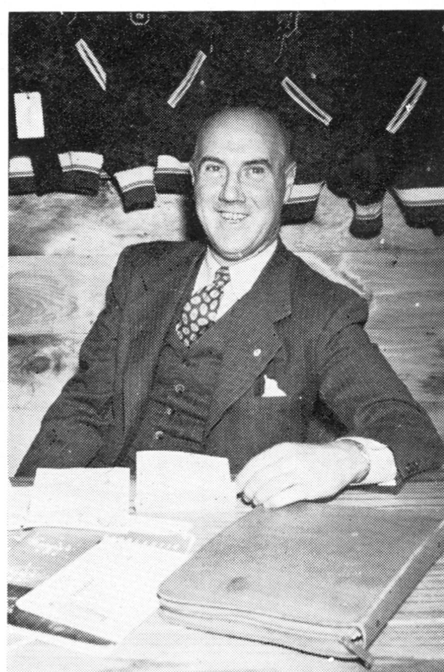

CAPTAIN JOHN PERRONE

THE Pittsfield High School football team, although they lost three games, still had a successful season. By vanquishing their three Berkshire County foes, the Purple gained their first County Championship since 1936, scoring 231 points against 118 for the opposition, an average of 26 to 13 for nine games.

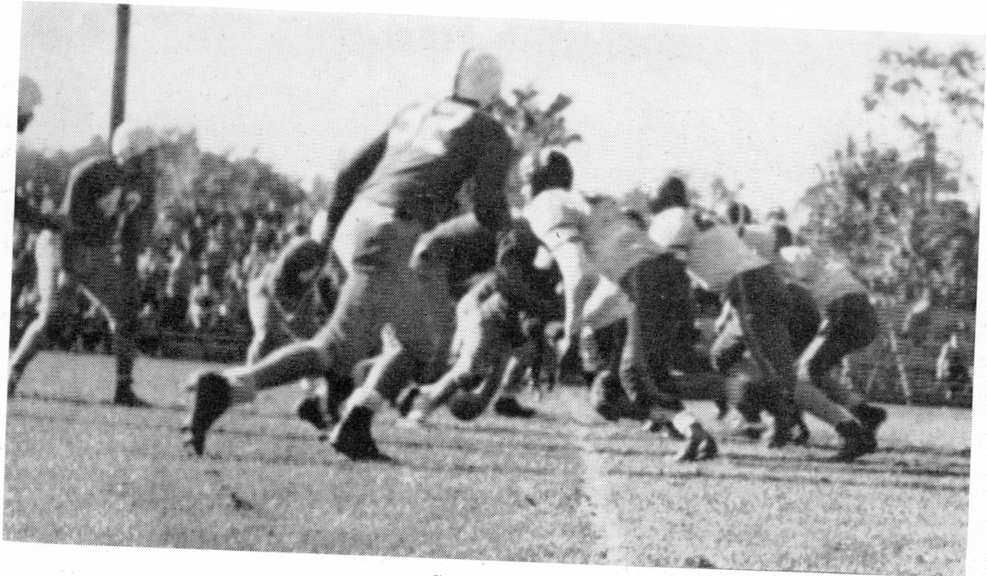

Captain John Perrone led the scorers with 54 points fashioned from nine touchdowns. Close at his heels were right end Joe Zavattero with 49 and "Brass" Ross with 42. Zavattero scored eight touchdowns and one extra point while Ross hit paydirt seven times. End Don Morehead scored 32 points on five TD's and two extra points. Fullback Joe Miller scored four times and big Steve Pytko chipped in one tally. Carl Hamilton kicked 18 out of 30 extra point attempts for a percentage of .600. Quarterback Tony Ferdyn, although he did not break into the scoring column, was the outstanding player on the team. He ran the T-Formation superbly and passed for 15 touchdowns. In the success of the 1949 football season these seniors played no small part.

DON MOREHEAD, Captain

AFTER leading the Northern Berkshire League for the first six weeks of the season, Pittsfield lost its chance for repeating as Berkshire County champions when they dropped close decisions to St. Joseph's of Pittsfield and Adams in the last three days of the season. Under the superlative tutelage of Coach Art Fox, the Pittsfield squad compiled a seasonal record of twelve wins and three losses.

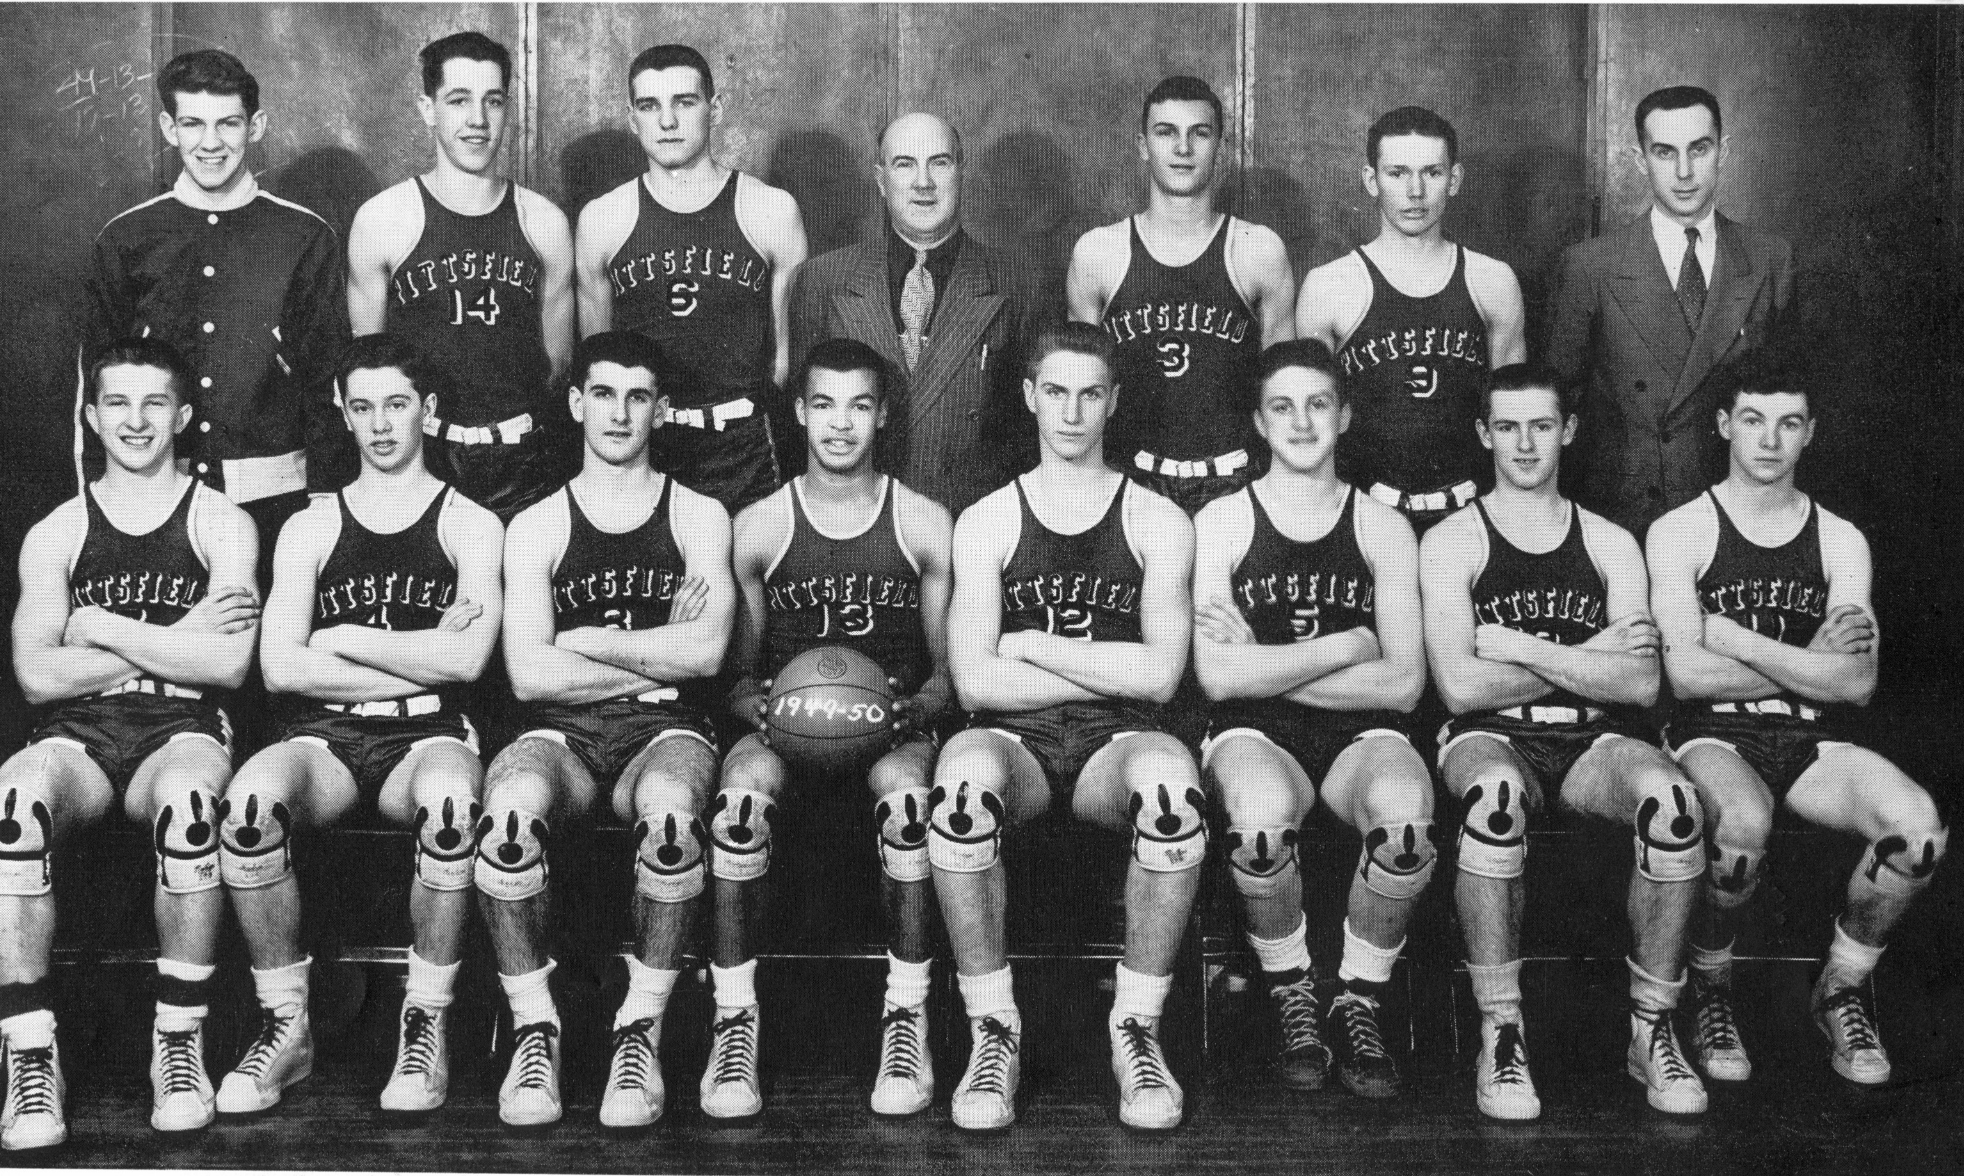

High scorer for the Purple was Skitch Yannone, who cashed in 162 points. Runner-up honors went to Joe Zavatarro who had 107 points. Buddy Sheran, All-Berkshire forward, was next in line with 90 points, followed by Captain Don Morehead with 54, Tony Ferdyn and Ron Russell with 34 each, Joe Viani with 28, John Massimiano with 27, and Dick Snook with 16. Completing the scoring for Pittsfield were John Krieger with nine, Bob Bourassa with six, Steve Trahanas with four, Lou Kryzanowski with two, and Dick Ross with one.

Skiing Summary

ALTHOUGH hampered in no small way by poor weather conditions, the Pittsfield High ski team, nevertheless, enjoyed a successful season. Led by Paul Wagenknecht and Ken Wilde, the defending champions came within one tenth of a point of repeating their former triumphs in the Berkshire Inter-Scholastic Skiing Meet at the State Forest. They also performed ably in the New England Inter-Scholastic Meet held at Lyndonville, Vermont, finishing seventh in a large field.

Rifle Team Review

THE 1949-1950 season of the Pittsfield High School Rifle Team has, at this writing, been quite successful. Although they got off to a poor start losing two meets to Wilbraham Academy, they have won the remainder of their engagements.

Since their schedule will not close until June, the record of wins and losses is incomplete. The wins consist of two from the Southern Berkshire Rifle Club, one from the Dalton High School Rifle Team, one from Drury High School Rifle Team, and two from the G.E.A.A. Off-Hand Team. Wilbraham Academy is the only team to have beaten P. H. S. in the past two years.

The executive committee of the team consists of Robert Dyer, president; Neil Clark, vice-president; Robert Roe, treasurer; Malcolm Keeler, secretary; and Richard Gorey, captain. Howard Clark is the range officer. Mr. Richard T. Weiss and Mr. Arthur Needham, members of the G.E.A.A. Rifle Club are coach and assistant coach respectively.

1950 VOLLEYBALL TEAM — Henzel

Volleyball

ALTHOUGH there is never a very large turnout for volleyball, those who play often insist it is their favorite sport. Since the players rotate position as the game progresses, each player has a chance to play every post, and this probably accounts for the game's popularity.

As seniors, the Class of 1950 won the volleyball tournament, after trying unsuccessfully the two preceding years. The team was captained by Monica Pytko. In the junior year the players were Joan Gaudette, Catherine Mierzejewski, Theresa Malumphy, Barbara Silver, Jean Cronin, Carolyn Smith, Monica Pytko, Esther Leone, Helen Kordana, and Rita Biron, while the team in the sophomore year consisted of Dianne Shuster, Catherine Mierzejewski, Theresa Malumphy, Lorita Martinelli, Marion Felton, Jeanette Cornelius, Marcia Viale, Monica Pytko, Rita Biron, and Carolyn Smith.

Altogether, the Class of 1950 had a very successful and fun-filled volleyball schedule under the able direction of Miss Jean I. Morgan, their coach, who guided them to the tournament championship.

FIELD HOCKEY SQUAD — Henzel

Top Row, Left to Right: Lucy Brower, Dorothy Matelo, Sophie Deminoff, Martha Marino, Catherine Mierzejewski, Rita Biron.

Field Hockey

EVERY year we have looked forward eagerly to the field hockey season. As sophomores, we picked up our hockey sticks and proceeded to the hockey field full of vim, vigor, and vitality. Seeing how the tournament turned out, we excused ourselves with—"Well, we're only sophs." After we had met our opponents in our junior year, we said, "Wait 'til we're seniors." Now that we have finally reached that exalted position and the dust has cleared from the battlefield, what can we say, but "Congratulations, 1951! ! !"

SENIOR GIRLS' BASKETBALL SQUAD — Henzel

Left to Right: Dorothy Wowk, Lena Pariselli, Nancy Shaffer, Dorothy Wojick, Theresa Malumphy, Monica Pytko, Ida VanBuren, Rita Biron, Lucy Brower.
Center: Captain, Catherine Mierzejewski.

Girls' Basketball Review

DURING our sophomore, junior, and senior years we all looked to the sport of basketball with great enthusiasm. Although there were to be only ten chosen for the team, the turnout was always large and competition keen. As a result, those who did make the team were real sharpshooters.

Under the able instruction of Miss Jean I. Morgan, we developed a peppy and lively team, but not lively enough to overthrow the strong defense of the juniors. But whether we won or lost, we all feel that the gym has given us much in the way of good sportsmanship.
